Together with all the other innovations to be presented during the Users Meetings (such as the Danaos Web Enterprise version) we are pleased to announce that through the new Danaos Platform we are offering the following services:

1. The Users Meetings will be broadcast on the Web. Viewing access is open to everyone, but priority (for questions) will be given to companies abroad.
2. Specialized forums are available on the Platform for the users to register issues for discussion during each Users Meeting session.

To participate, please register now at www.danaosplatform.com

Warmest Regards
Danaos Management Consultants S.A.
